Dear [REDACTED]:

We are answering correspondence, submitted on your behalf by [REDACTED], requesting relief under Revenue Procedure 98-55, in order to establish 1999 as the effective taxable year for your S corporation election. You are ineligible for relief under Revenue Procedure 98-55 because your request for relief was submitted past the allowable window period. Further, you are ineligible for relief under Revenue Procedure 97-48 because because the Internal Revenue Service sent a letter advising you about the on April 25, 2000, which was within 6 months after receiving your first Form 1120S tax return. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides information relating to your request.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The information forwarded to our office is insufficient for us to process a private letter ruling request. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set forth in Revenue Procedure 2003-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, taxpayers must submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000; however, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their tax return for the most recent 12-month taxable year, qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you must include a statement claiming that your gross income for the last 12-month taxable year was less than one million dollars.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please follow the sample format provided in Appendix B of Rev. Proc. 2003-1. Your request should include all required procedural statements, a check for the user fee, and any documents that substantiate your intent to be an S corporation from inception. Please refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:

P.O. Box 7604

Please keep this letter with your tax records and feel free to provide a copy of it to your authorized representative. We hope that the above information proves helpful.

Sincerely yours,
